RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters. East Martin street has fallen into the hands of the street paving force. Raleigh has a new soda fountain at Barbee & Pope's fruit store on Fayetteville street. Next Tuesday is the grand excursion to Winston-only $1,50 for the round trip. Many Raleigh people are getting ready to go. It is reported that the Raleigh & Gaston railroad company contemplate making large additions to their shops and yards in this city at an early day. The guests of the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead participated in and enjoyed a grand pink ball last night. There will be a brilliant german on Monday night.

Elder D. N. Gore, by appointment, will preach in the Primitive Baptist church, Raleigh, this Sunday, 13th July, 1890, at 11 o'clock a. m. Public cordially invited.

Ellis, of Saratoga, N. C., a notary public, and J. N. Brunus, of Jersey City, a commissioner of affidavits for the State of North Carolina.

The bicycle club is rapidly growing. The boys are seeking to get right of way privileges from the board of aldermen, and if they succeed, they will give some great parades.

There has been no active meeting of the chamber of commerce in two months. The time for the next regular meeting, which will be the second Tuesday in August, will also be the time for the visit to friends in Nashville. annual election of officers.

Mr. Herbert Norris seems to be the champion fisherman at Morehead so far this season. Parties who returned from there yesterday reported that he had caught and landed a shark, seven feet long, after a very lively tussle.

Mr. R. H. Weathers suffered severely vesterday from an attack of nervous prostration. He had been attending the bedside of his dying father for three nights in succession, and the effort was two much for his physical condition which was weak from severe injuries sustained some time ago. Mr. Weathers made a complete surrender yester-day and it was at first thought that he had sustained a stroke of paralysis; but it is thought that he is suffering from over-exertion.

Weather Report.

Raleigh yesterday: Maximum temperature 82; minimum temperature 55; rainfall 0.00 inches.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity for to-day: Fair weather, becoming slightly warmer.

WASHINGTON, July 11.-Forecast for Virginia and North Carolina, fair; southerly winds; warmer Sunday.

A Little Ten Dollar Fire.

Yesterday at 12:25 o'clock, a fire alarm was turned in from box 26. The fire department found that the house oceupied by Mr. Z: T. Broughton, on East Hargett street, had taken fire from a stone-flue. The flames were conquered quickly and only ten dollars damage was done. The house is owned by Mrs. Wyatt Holleman.
